198/24/7	To discuss actions with regard to Harby Playing Fields Committee current situation since last meeting (April 2024) and consider further actions The questionnaire undertaken by the Parish Council on the future of the Playing Fields has been very positive with many residents using the facilities on a regular basis. Everyone wished the facilities to continue to be available for public use in the future. The consultation has also highlighted over 30 offers of help at events throughout the year. People with many and varied skills have also offered help as may be required by the Playing Fields Committee from time to time. There are 4 potential new committee members. There were suggestions for activities including the reintroduction of the car boots, car shows and community events
